The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, August 4. 1714.

London, August 4.

Yesterday arrived the Mails due from Holland and Flanders.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated Aug. 10.

Rome, July 22.

THE Pope has been indisposed some Days past, which made him put off his usual Monday's Audience to Wednesday, when Cardinal Aquaviva was admitted, and afterwards had a long Conference with Cardinal Albani, on the Arrival of a Courier whom he had received the Evening before, dispatched by King Philip V, with a Remittance of 12000 Pistoles, and with a Commission to repair forthwith to Parma, there to marry, in the Name of his Majesty, the Princess, only Daughter of the Duke of Parma, and afterwards to accompany her to Final, where she is to imbark on Gallies that are to carry her to Marseilles, whence she will proceed to Madrid. This News, which is judged to be as important as 'twas unexpected, is the general Subject of Discourse. His Eminence set out on Thursday for Parma, accompanied by his Gentlemen, to each of whom he has given 100 Crowns.

Hague, Aug. 10. 'Letters from Hanover 'of the 7th Instant advise, that the King of 'Prussia arriving there the 30th of last 'Month at Night, accompanied by the 'Generals Mardewitz and Lieben and Colonel Lowen, set out from thence the 3d 'Instant early in the Morning: And that 'the good Intelligence between his Prussian 'Majesty and his Electoral Highness of 'Hanover is firmly corroborated by this Interview. The Earl of Clarendon had Audience of his said Electoral Highness the '4th Instant, without Ceremony.

London, August 4.

Late last Night arrived the Mail due from France.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Aug. 11.

Paris, Aug. 11. The 8th at Night arrived a Courier from Barcelona. The Duke of Berwick writes, that the Covered-Way was taken the 30th past. The Rebels had commanded out 12000 Men to defend it: There appeared of that Number at first but 3000, and an Hour after but 500 of those were left, who fled assoon as our Men marched up to attack them: We had no Loss on this Occasion. 'There is already a great Breach in the Curtain, and the Miners are at work under the Bastion.

From the Paris Letter, dated Aug. 11.

Paris, Aug. 11. According to some Advices from the Hague, the King of Prussia was there the 24th past, intirely incognito. The King returned to Day to Versailles from Marly. 'Tis reported, that the Princess of Vaudemont is dead of an Apoplexy at Commercy.

Dover, Aug. 1. 'His Grace the Duke 'of Marlborough having imbarked at Ostend on Thursday last, after violent tempestuous Weather, happily arrived here 'this Day: He was received by the 'Mayor and Jurats in their Formalities, 'with the universal Acclamations of all 'People, and with the Discharge of a great 'Number of Guns from the Platforms (but 'none from the Castle.) His Grace sets 'out to Morrow, accompanied by a great 'Number of the principal Gentry, for Sittenbourn, and 'tis hoped will arrive safely in 'London early on Wednesday.

Portsmouth, Aug. 2. This Afternoon arrived his Majesty's Ship the Hinde, Captain Farlie Commander, from Newfoundland, having made his Passage in 28 Days from Placentia, of
